Scholarships for Orleans County.

Senator M. M. Taplin of Orleans has had three scholarships to award in Orleans county. Two of these have already been awarded. One to Clarence Cole of Orleans, who will go to Middlebury college. The other to a young lady in Craftsbury, who will attend the University of Vermont in Burlington. The third is still to be awarded and is for Norwich University. This scholarship can be had for four years at $65 per year or for two years at $80 per year. Senator Taplin awaits applications for this third scholarship. If this scholarship is not awarded by the first of September, the college has the privilege of awarding it. Here is an opportunity awaiting some worthy young man or woman. Make application to Senator Taplin at once.

Burleigh C. Berry.

B. C. Berry was the only child of Richard and Betsey Berry. He was born in Sutton, June 30, 1856, and died at his home in Willoughby Friday, July 28, at the age of 55 years and nearly one month. His father fought in the Civil war and at New Orleans when the subject of this sketch was a mere lad. When a young man he learned telegraphy and began to engage in railroad work. He did service at many different stations, but the greater part of his life was spent as telegrapher and station agent at South Barton now called Willoughby. His first wife was Miss Emma Young of Magog, Canada. They had three children, Arthur Berry of Claremont, N. H., Mrs. W. C. Willey and Mrs. E. J. Wheeler. He also took into his own home and gave a father's care to two children of his sister. Their names were Henry Hamilton and Ralph, who was adopted and bears the name of Berry. After the death of his first wife he married Mrs. Margaret Weed, who survives him to mourn his loss. He was a member of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers and an Odd Fellow. As a man and as a citizen, as a husband and father, words cannot too highly praise him. In his position of responsibility in railroad service he was faithful and competent. As a citizen he was interested in the best things for his town, serving very efficiently on the school board for many years. As a man his record and character were above reproach. In his home he was kind and affectionate and met all his duties and all his sickness and afflictions with a Christian spirit. During the two or three last years of his life his health began to fail. His health gave very rapidly during the last year of his life because of a severe heart trouble. And Friday the earthly life ceased for him and the life eternal began. Rev. W. A. Warner, for a long time an intimate friend of the family, officiated at the funeral services and spoke words of eulogy and comfort. Members of the Congregational choir furnished music. Many loving friends sent flowers in token of their esteem. Mrs. Berry, an aged mother, and other members of the family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

First Passenger Flights in Vermont.

The fair management has made arrangements with James V. Martin, the aviator, who makes several flights the last two days of the Orleans County fair, the dates of which are August 22, 23 and 24 at Barton, to bring his passenger biplane and carry passengers. Without question patrons of the fair this year will witness the first passenger flights in Vermont. Mr. Martin who is now successfully flying in a meet on Long Island writes that he will be on hand prepared to do some flying that will not disappoint the most exacting, and from the reputation Martin has, it will be an exhibition worth the 25 cents charged for admission to the whole fair. The Monitor publishes on another page a picture of Mr. Martin in his biplane as he was about to start a recent flight.

The association is putting more into attractions this year than ever before and is making every effort to make this the biggest fair in the history of the association. A high class of stage attractions has been engaged so that there will not be a dull moment from morning till night. Canadian stock will not be allowed to compete with native stock this year for premiums and a much larger local exhibit is expected than usual. Three hot ball games are being arranged, one for each day. Don't forget the date, the aeroplane flights or the price of admission.

Good Story, Though It's Old.

Some interesting Vermont items may be found in perusing the reproductions of the war time issues of the Boston Sunday Herald. The following is from the issue of August 2, 1863:

A good "goak" is told at the expense of two deputy sheriffs from Newport, who arrested one O. W. Ryder, and started to lodge him in Irasburg jail. On the way, the captors stopped at a well-known hotel, and left the captured while they indulged in the flowing bowl. Prisoner took a nap, and when he awoke found the sheriffs non est, and so went on to Irasburg and voluntarily offered himself to the jailor, who however would not take him in. In this desperate extremity he decided to advertise for the lost sheriffs, which he did in a neat handbill. To a careful observer it would seem that the prisoner had the inside trick that time.

A Union Picnic.

A union Sunday school picnic will be held Friday of this week in the grove where May brook empties into Crystal Lake. Teams for those who prefer to ride will start from the churches at ten o'clock. Ice cold lemonade, swings and games will be provided. Efforts will be made to secure motor boats for a sail on the lake. Everybody in the community, whether a member of the Sunday schools or not, is cordially invited to join in this social outing. If the weather is unfit for the picnic on Friday it will be held on Saturday.

Munsey Now in Jail.

Another chapter has been written in the episode related two weeks ago in the Monitor, of the pilgrimage of certain Barton and West Glover men to Lyndonville to deal with another man who was too familiar with the wife of one of the men. Nelson C. Stevens of West Glover has brought suit against Harry L. Munsey for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections and seeks to recover $10,000 damages. A body writ was served on Munsey Friday which landed him in Caledonia county jail.

BASEBALL NEWS NOTES

Barton Takes One and Loses One. Up against the Best Teams in the State.

Yesterday Barton lost at Pillsbury's Athletic park to Ludlow, 3 to 2, in a close and exciting game, in which an unusual number of double plays kept their score down. The Ludlow aggregation is certainly a fast team and a bunch of good natured sports who can both take and give a joke. They are out on a week's jaunt, playing every day, and thus far it has been a string of victories. They won from Barre Italians at Barre Saturday, 5 to 4, from Hardwick Monday by a score of 5 to 1 and from Barton yesterday 3 to 2. A second game is on with Barton this afternoon as we go to press.

Aylward, who did the pitching yesterday for the visitors, displayed the unusual ability of pitching with either hand. While throwing mostly with his right he occasionally burned one over with his left. Laird did excellent work in the box for Barton, puzzling the visitors with his spit balls and pulled out of several bad holes.

Following is the score of the game and also the score of the game at Hardwick Saturday when our boys won a good game 3 to 2. Manager Erwin is certainly giving us some baseball now, having scheduled two games with Orleans for next week as mentioned elsewhere.
